HEAD COACH [SIXTH SEASON]

VIC SCHAEFER

Two-Time National Coach of the Year Vic Schaefer is 144-36 in five seasons as the head coach of the Texas Longhorns. The 2025-26 season will mark his 21st season as a head coach and 41st season in coaching. Schaefer was the 2025 SEC Coach of the Year and is now one of two active coaches and four all-time to lead two different programs to the Final Four. In his time at Texas and Mississippi State Schaefer has a record of 365-98 with three Final Fours, two national championship games, seven Elite Eight's and eight Sweet 16's.

Schaefer, a Texas native who has spent 26 of his 40 years in coaching within the state of Texas and 30 years in the Southwest, is the fifth head coach in program history.

In 20 seasons as a collegiate head coach, which also includes eights seasons at Mississippi State and seven seasons at Sam Houston State, Schaefer now owns a career record of 445-208

2024-25 was a historic season for the Longhorns as they won 35 games to set a program record for wins in the NCAA Era. Texas advanced to the Final Four for the first time in 22 years and won the SEC regular season championship in their first season in the league. Madison Booker was named the SEC Player of the Year and an Associated Press First Team All-American. Booker won the Cheryl Miller Small Forward of the Year award for the second straight season. Rori Harmon and Taylor Jones earned WBCA All-America honorable mention honors and Jordan Lee earned a spot on the SEC All-Freshman Team.

In the 2023-24 season Texas won 33 games, their most in a season since the 1985-86 season. The Longhorns won the Big 12 Tournament Championship, marking their third straight conference championship. Texas advanced to the Elite Eight for the third time in the last four seasons. Madison Booker earned WBCA All-America honors and was named the Cheryl Miller Small Forward of the Year. Booker was also selected Big 12 Player of the Year and Big 12 Freshman of the Year.

In the 2022-23 season the Longhorns went 26-10 and captured the Big 12 regular season title, their first regular season crown since the 2003-04 season. Schaefer earned Big 12 Coach of the Year honors. Rori Harmon earned All-America honorable mentions honors and was selected the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and an All-Big 12 First Team honoree. Joining Harmon the All-Big 12 First Team was DeYona Gastona. Shaylee Gonzales earned Big 12 Newcomer of the Year and a spot on the All-Big 12 Second Team. Amina Muhammad earned selection to the Big 12 All Freshman Team.

The Longhorns put together a historic 2021-22 campaign during Schaefer's second year on the Forty Acres, culminating in the program claiming its first Big 12 Championship Title since 2003 and making a second-consecutive run to the Elite Eight round of the NCAA Tournament.

UT finished the season 29-7 overall, which marked its highest win total since the 2015-16 season, and finished as the No. 6-ranked team in the county in the final Associated Press Top-25 poll, its highest finish since the 2003-04 season.

Entering the Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship in Kansas City as the No. 3 seed, the Longhorns earned victories over Kansas State, No. 2-seeded Iowa State and top-seeded Baylor to capture the crown. The Longhorns' victory over the Lady Bears snapped a 13-game losing streak dating back to Feb. 20, 2017.

With its automatic bid, Texas earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament and the right to host the regional rounds. The Longhorns took down No. 15 seed Fairfield in the opening round before defeating No. 7 seed Utah in the Round of 32, in what was the final game played inside the historic Frank Erwin Center.

Securing a trip the Sweet Sixteen in Spokane, Wash., the Longhorns earned a wire-to-wire victory over No. 5 seed Ohio State to punch a ticket to their second-straight Elite Eight, where they fell just short of the Final Four with a narrow 59-50 loss to No. 1 seed Stanford. UT's back-to-back appearances in the regional final was their first repeat appearance since the Longhorns made five-straight Elite 8 appearances from 1986-90.

As a head or assistant coach, Schaefer has now been a part of one NCAA Championship, three NCAA Championship Games, four Final Fours, Eight Elite Eights and 11 Sweet 16s. Schaefer has led his teams to an astounding five-straight Elite Eight appearances and has made the Sweet Sixteen in six-straight years dating back to the 2015-16 season.

Four Longhorns received All-Big 12 recognition in 2021-22 under Schaefer's watch, highlighted my freshman phenom point guard Rori Harmon, who was tabbed the Big 12 Freshman of the Year and named to the All-Big 12 Second Team, All-Defensive Team and All-Freshman Team. Senior guard Joanne Allen-Taylor earned a spot on the All-Big 12 Second Team while senior center Lauren Ebo and junior guard Aliyah Matharu received All-Big 12 Honorable Mention.
Harmon also garnered plenty of national attention as she put together one of the best seasons by a freshman in school history. The Houston native received All-America Honorable Mention honors from the Associated Press and the Women's Basketball Coaches Association, becoming the first freshman in school history to earn All-American status from either organization.

Harmon finished the 2021-22 season with 180 total assists which ranked No. 17 in the NCAA and broke the school record for single-season assists by a freshman. She also led the Big 12, ranked No.17 nationally with 86 steals on the year which placed her at the No. 2 spot in program history for single-season steals by a freshman.

Schaefer made quite an impression during his initial campaign on the Forty Acres by leading the Longhorns to 21 wins in 2020-21 as well as to the program's 10th all-time NCAA Elite Eight (first since 2016). With a magical run through the NCAA Tournament, that included victories over No. 2-seed Maryland, No. 3-seed UCLA and No. 11-seed Bradley, Schaefer became just the ninth coach in Division I history to lead two different programs to the Elite Eight.

During the 2020-21 season, Schaefer helped mentor No. 1 WNBA Draft pick (Dallas Wings – first Texas player to be the top selection) and 2021 USBWA and WBCA (honorable mention) All-America center Charli Collier. The Mont Belvieu, Texas, native averaged 19.0 points and 11.3 rebounds per game, making her just the second Longhorn to average a double-double in multiple years (Retha Swindell; 1976-77 & 1977-78). She recorded 19 double-doubles, the second-most of any Division I player, and ranked in the top-15 nationally in field goals made (211), final points (590), free throws made (153), minutes played (1010:31), offensive rebounds per game (4.4) and rebounds (35). Collier also scored at least 20 points on 17 occasions, the second-most of any Big 12 player.

Schaefer also boasted four All-Big 12 Conference selections as Collier received unanimous first-team recognition, while guards Joanne Allen-Taylor, Celeste Taylor and Kyra Lambert all reaped honorable mention All-Big 12 accolades.

Before coming to Texas, Schaefer spent eight seasons as the head coach at Mississippi State (2011-20), where he led the Bulldogs to a 221-62 [.781] record and five NCAA Tournament berths, including two NCAA Championship Game appearances. Under his direction, Mississippi State won the program's first SEC regular-season championship and SEC Tournament championship and made five consecutive appearances in the SEC Tournament Championship Game, tying the University of Tennessee's record for consecutive tournament final appearances.

As a head or assistant coach, Schaefer has now been a part of one NCAA Championship, three NCAA Championship Games, four Final Fours, seven Elite Eights and 10 Sweet 16s.

Schaefer's last seven teams at Mississippi State won 20 or more games, including 30-win campaigns in three of the last four years. Under his leadership, the Bulldogs posted a school record for victories each season from 2014-18, capped by a nation-best 37-2 mark during the 2017-18 run to the NCAA Championship Game.

In 2019, Schaefer was the SEC Coach of the Year and the espnW National Coach of the Year. In 2018, he was named the Naismith National Coach of the Year and earned the same accolade from the USBWA, WBCA and College Sports Madness, in addition to being selected as the SEC Coach of the Year.

During his time in Starkville, Schaefer mentored a pair of All-Americans in Teaira McCowan and Victoria Vivians, who finished their careers as two of the most decorated players in program history. McCowan was the 2019 SEC Player of the Year and a two-time WBCA All-American. Vivians was a 2018 Associated Press All-American and won the Ann Meyers Drysdale Award as the nation's top shooting guard that same year.

Schaefer's success quickly translated to the stands, as Mississippi State was one of the national leaders in attendance in each of his final seven seasons. The top-20 largest crowds in school history occurred during his time at the helm. In 2018-19, Mississippi State set program records for total attendance [143,578] and average attendance [8,446], which ranked fourth and fifth in the country, respectively. The Bulldogs were 118-17 [.874] inside Humphrey Coliseum during his tenure.

During the summer of 2019, he was tabbed an assistant coach for the USA Basketball women's team at the Pan American Games in Lima, Peru, helping the team win the silver medal. That same summer, his Mississippi State squad represented Team USA at the World University Games in Naples, Italy, earning a silver medal at that event, as well. In 2007, he became the first associate head coach to be named head coach of the United States William Jones Cup Team, guiding the team to a bronze medal in Taipei, Taiwan.

Schaefer spent nine years as associate head coach to Gary Blair at Texas A&M. Nicknamed the "Secretary of Defense," Schaefer's teams consistently placed atop the Big 12 rankings in turnovers forced, steals and turnover margin. In 2011, the Aggies won the National Championship in the program's first trip to the Final Four.

Schaefer was also part of Texas A&M squads that won two Big 12 Tournament titles [2010 & 2008] and the conference regular-season title in 2007.

Schaefer accompanied Blair to Texas A&M following a six-year stint as associate head coach at Arkansas from 1997-2003. During that run, he helped the Razorbacks to four NCAA Tournament appearances, including a Final Four berth in his inaugural season.

Schaefer went to Arkansas after serving as head women's coach at Sam Houston State from 1990-97. In 1996, he was tabbed the Southland Conference Coach of the Year after leading the Bearkats to their most wins in a decade [18]. During his first year with the program, he coached Sierena Autman to Southland Conference Player of the Year accolades.

A native of Austin, Texas, Schaefer served as a men's assistant coach at Sam Houston State [1987-89] between stints as the assistant boys' basketball coach and head tennis coach at Houston's Milby High School. As a player, Schaefer was an all-state performer in basketball, football and baseball at Houston Lutheran High School before going on to play two seasons of collegiate basketball at Alvin Community College. He graduated from Texas A&M in 1984.

Schaefer and his wife, Holly, who played basketball at Arkansas State and later served as an assistant coach at UT Arlington, have twin children, Blair and Logan, both of whom graduated from Mississippi State during the 2017-18 year. Blair Schaefer currently serves as Texas' Assistant Coach.

The Frank Erwin Center [16,540 capacity] has been the home of Texas Basketball since the 1977-78 season. The site of tremendous moments in UT basketball history, the Erwin Center is also a mecca of collegiate basketball. One step inside "The Drum" reveals an arena bathed in burnt orange and numerous banners chronicling the rich championship tradition of Texas Basketball. Visible for miles when burnt orange floodlights illuminate it at night, the Frank Erwin Center is a beacon on UT's campus. The building is named for former UT Board of Regents member Frank Erwin.

As the final seconds of the 1986 NCAA Championship game ticked away, University of Texas head coach Jody Conradt turned away from the action on the floor for the first time. Not to hide her disappointment -- her team had disappointed none of the Longhorns faithful this day -- but to find All-America guard Kamie Ethridge, the "quarterback" of the finest team in Texas women's basketball history. Ethridge was also one of the six seniors who had been through the adversity, the injured knees, and the heart-breaking defeats of the previous three years. Conradt wanted to share this moment with her "extension" on the floor, with the player who so expertly understood and executed her coaching philosophy. They embraced as time ran out, and television captured the picture for the nation. The video expertly framed the moment, but it could not quite convey the range of emotions at that instant felt by the championship team -- relief, exhilaration, vindication, even disbelief that it had actually happened after all.

They had won the championship like no other women's team in NCAA history, having survived an entire season without a loss. This team was perfect -- 34-0.

"The first thought was perfection. Immediately after the USC game, it just hit me that we had accomplished something no other team had," Conradt said after the championship. "There will be a champion crowned every year, but the undefeated championships will form an elite group."

The Longhorns had been preseason favorites in many of the rankings, the pollsters seeming to disregard what surely was one of the toughest schedules in the country. Or did that small sampling of coaches already know what the rest of the country would soon find out -- top to bottom, Texas possessed the most talent in the country and maybe the single most talented team in the history of major women's college basketball?

Make no mistake; this was a team -- equipped with 13 players, six of the seniors, with a single goal, a single ambition -- to win the national title. It had proved to be an exclusive goal before, like the previous two years when Texas finished the season ranked No. 1 in the nation, but could not advance to the Final Four.

The season opener at Ohio State would prove to be closest encounter of the season. The tentative Longhorns were out rebounded and eked out a 76-74 victory over the Buckeyes. They looked tense and weren't "having fun out there" as Conradt commented after the game. Conradt found out much sooner than she expected what kind of pressure her troops felt. The rest of the season, Conradt stressed the importance of having fun on the court. When they weren't having fun, when the pressure began to get to them, they struggled.

They struggled in the final game of the Midwest Regional in the Frank Erwin Center against Ole Miss. Perhaps it was the pressure of getting to the Final Four that slowed down the potent Texas offense or perhaps it was the Rebels' Jennifer Gillom roaming the middle and scoring 25 points. They struggled, but didn't collapse. Texas countered with Beverly Williams' career-high 20 points and 12 from Fran Harris and road the cheers of 10, 064 Erwin Center faithful to its first NCAA Final Four berth.

Ole Miss had given Texas a tough time earlier in the year at the Orange Bowl-Burger King Invitational in Coral Gables, Florida. There Texas trailed the rebels 22-10 with two minutes left in the first half. After a time-out, Conradt replaced Annette Smith with Freshman Clarissa Davis, who scored the next seven points, and Texas went on to win 57-46. "What can you do?" asked Rebels coach Van Chancellor. "I hold their All-America center down and the girl who subs for her comes in and scores 17 points."

It was that way all year for the Horns. On the season, Texas' bench was responsible for the 42 of the teams' 83.9 points a game. In the championship game against USC, the bench outscored the first five, 58-39. It was obvious early, that every one this could -- and would -- play. With Andrea Lloyd and Annette Smith -- both starters -- on the bench resting sore knees, Texas defeated Miami in laugher, 112-43. "Near perfect" was the way Miami head coach Lin Dunn described Texas' performance that night.

Tennessee and USC -- the two Final Four teams pitted in the other semifinal -- had both been thwarted earlier by Texas. But before Texas played either Tennessee or USC for the championship, they had to defeat a nemesis from the year before -- Western Kentucky. Conradt discounted revenge as a motivating factor in the semifinals.

"The fact that we have a chance to win a national title should be enough incentive," she said. And it proved to be so. The Longhorns rocked the Hilltoppers with a 90-65 win, and Andrea Lloyd, Cara Priddy, and Smith handled All-America center Lillie Mason and sharp shooting guard Clemette Haskins with ease. Offensively, Davis came off the bench to lead Texas with 32 points and 18 rebounds, while Harris added 20 more points to seal the victory. Davis' ability to explode off the bench was a pattern set early in the year -- but accelerated during the NCAA playoffs. Against Missouri in the tournament opener, she scored 21 points and grabbed 10 rebounds in a 108-67 win, followed by her 18 points and nine rebounds against Midwest Regional opponent Oklahoma. She wasn't alone. Priddy had played solid, if non-descript, reserve role during the regular season, but the senior vowed to go out in style. During the Final Four, she did whatever was asked. Against Western Kentucky, the call came for defense, and she helped frustrate Mason all night, until the Hilltoppers' All-American eventually fouled out. In the championship game, with USC leaving Priddy free in the middle, she roamed for 15 points.

During the hoopla surrounding the Final Four, much was made of the finals being USC's Cheryl Miller's last game. In the Texas locker room, Priddy stressed to her teammates that this was her last game as well. "I'm a senior and want to go out a winner." Five other seniors' voices joined. In a typical display of Texas teamwork, five Longhorns scored in double figures to pace a 97-81 victory. Miller was held to 16 points on two-for-11 shooting from the field before fouling out. It was as awesome a defensive effort as any given by Texas all year. Davis scored 24 points and grabbed 14 boards in the final and earned near-unanimous support for tournament MVP. Harris tallied 14 points against the Women of Troy and joined Davis on the all-tournament team. Ethridge's steady control of the offense and her 20 assists in the Final Four, a tournament record, impressed the CBS announcing crew and earned her Chevrolet Player of the Game honors.

A crowd of 3,300 greeted the Texas team and National Coach of the Year award winner Conradt at the Erwin Center that night after a limo ride from the airport. Former Congresswoman Barbara Jordan gave the welcome home speech.

"You have shown all of America something very special," she said to the champions. "You have shown us what a TEAM is."

The 1985-86 version of the Longhorns was definitely a team -- whether it be a team of destiny or simply a great team with superb talent or both. This team played like a team on a mission -- doing whatever had to be done to get the victory. Like Ethridge coming in against Texas Tech on two sore ankles to provide the spark the Horns needed to come back for the victory. Sometimes they were simply a talented team that blew away the opposition when everything clicked. Like when they defeated highly ranked Northeast Louisiana and its two towering posts Lisa Ingram and Chana Perry twice within a month.

Perhaps they were a team of destiny. Perhaps Fortune decided she had bypassed the Longhorns or inflicted injury on them once too often. Perhaps luck finally smiled on them and carried this talented TEAM to their just deserves. Whatever the circumstances, this version of the Longhorns will be fondly remembered and recalled. For this was the year they were favorites to win it all -- and accomplished that dream.

#15 - ANNETTE SMITH-KNIGHT

Annette Smith-Knight, Smith-Knight played at The University of Texas from 1981-84, redshirted in 1984-85 and completed her senior year in 1985-86 as a member of the NCAA's first undefeated women's basketball national championship team (34-0). She is the all-time leading scorer in women's and men's basketball history at UT with 2,523 points, a record that will be difficult to erase. Smith-Knight led Texas to a runner-up AIAW national championship finish in 1981-82 as a high-scoring freshman from Bay City. As a junior in 1983-84, she was a Kodak All-America selection, despite having her spectacular season cut short by a severe knee injury incurred during a late February practice. She also earned USBWA All-American honors and was a Wade Trophy finalist. Smith-Knight had led her squad to a No. 1 ranking that season, and the injury also dashed her hopes to go through U.S. national women's basketball team trials as an Olympic team hopeful for the 1984 Games in Los Angeles. Smith-Knight had been a member of the 1983 gold medalist U.S. national team for the World University Games team in Edmonton, Canada. Smith-Knight missed the entire 1984-85 season while rehabilitating her knee injury. That year, Texas was ranked No. 1 as well and hoped to play in the NCAA Final Four in Austin, but fell in the NCAA Midwest Region semifinal at Western Kentucky. The Longhorns avenged that defeat a year later with Smith-Knight back on the court in the 1986 NCAA semifinal in Rupp Arena in Lexington, Ky. Texas defeated USC in the NCAA championship game. Smith-Knight was billed "the best little center" in the nation during her career. At 5-11, she was a prolific scorer in the post and an end-to-end speedster in the Longhorns' full-court pressing defense and fast-breaking offense. She started in 131 games, and her squads never lost a Southwest Conference regular season or postseason game, winning four SWC regular season and postseason crowns between 1982-83 and 1985-86. SWC competition did not start until 1982-83 for women's basketball. In 1982-83 and 1983-84, Smith-Knight was first-team All-SWC and All-SWC Tournament (Tournament MVP in 1982-83) as well as SWC Player of the Year. She still holds the Texas record for consecutive double-figure scoring games (55). She scored 20 or more points in 64 games. Smith-Knight also still ranks first in field goals made (1,052), is second in career scoring average (19.3) and is seventh in career rebounds (966).
